Relias Healthcare Announces OCH Regional Medical Center Partnership

Starkville, MS – (February 4, 2025) – Relias Healthcare, a multi-state provider of Emergency and Hospital Medicine practice management solutions, is excited to announce a new partnership with OCH Regional Medical Center. This collaboration marks another step in Relias Healthcare's commitment to delivering high-quality, patient-centered medical services throughout the region.

Based in Starkville, MS, OCH Regional Medical Center provides a broad range of services within 20 medical specialties, from orthopedics and cardiac care to maternity services and wound care. OCH Regional Medical Center is currently supported by a dedicated team of over 300 doctors and nurses, providing exceptional care across 13 clinics. OCH's strong network ensures that patients have access to a wide array of medical services and specialties.

This partnership with Relias Healthcare will further enhance OCH Regional Medical Center's ability to provide timely and efficient medical services. By leveraging advanced management strategies and staffing solutions, OCH aims to elevate its already high standards of care, ensuring that patients receive prompt attention and treatment when they need it most.

Relias Healthcare's leadership team recognizes the significance of this partnership in enhancing patient care and is eager to share their vision for the collaboration.

"Relias Healthcare is thrilled to partner with OCH Regional Medical Center," said Luke West, CEO of Relias Healthcare. "Our partnership is built on a shared vision of creating a best-in-class practice environment for providers, knowing that when we support our healthcare teams, patients, hospitals, and communities thrive."

Together, Relias Healthcare and OCH Regional Medical Center aim to enhance healthcare access and improve outcomes for patients in the Starkville area and beyond. The partnership is effective today.
