Relias Healthcare and North Mississippi Health System Celebrate a Decade of Partnership

TUPELO, MS — On Thursday, January 15, Relias Healthcare and North Mississippi Health System gathered with partners, providers, and community members to commemorate a decade-long partnership during an evening celebration held at Mt. Vernon Chapel.

The event marked ten years of collaboration focused on delivering high-quality, patient-centered care across North Mississippi. Attendees included clinicians, health system leaders, and community partners who have played a vital role in shaping the partnership over the past decade.

During the evening, Dr. Joe Johnsey, Co-Founder and Chief Medical Officer, addressed the many providers in attendance, recognizing their dedication and the essential role they play in making the partnership successful. As part of the program, Dr. Johnsey honored Dr. Scotty Reed for his leadership of the Emergency Medicine Fellowship program over the past nine years, highlighting his sustained commitment to physician development, education, and clinical excellence.

“This milestone represents more than time,” shared representatives from Relias Healthcare. “It reflects a shared dedication to supporting clinicians, improving care environments, and investing in the people who serve North Mississippi every day.”

Since its inception, the partnership has emphasized clinician engagement, site-level empowerment, and innovation grounded in real-world care delivery. Together, Relias Healthcare and North Mississippi Health System have navigated changes in healthcare while maintaining a focus on dignity, compassion, and excellence in patient care.

Relias Healthcare expressed gratitude for the enduring partnership with North Mississippi Health System and looks forward to building on this foundation in the decade ahead.

The evening concluded with a shared sense of appreciation for the providers, leaders, and partners who have made the collaboration possible, reinforcing a continued commitment to the future of healthcare in North Mississippi inspiring achievements and continued commitment to excellence.
